

OHCHR- THE SOCIAL FORUM OF HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL

(2 - 3 November 2023)

PARALLEL EVENT - UNITED NATIONS OFFICE GENEVA

Title: Renaissance of Human Rights - A Crucial Contribution of Science and Technology

3 November 2023 - 2:00 PM - 3:00 PM

Infoline: +41 22 303 93 01

This parallel event, titled "Innovation for Human Rights: The Key Role of Technology," explores how scientific and technological progress can play a decisive role in promoting and protecting human rights. This event will focus on current challenges and future opportunities, bringing together interdisciplinary experts to discuss the impact of science and technology on reshaping human rights.

SPEAKERS

Moderator:
Dr Enrico GERVASONI
Strategy Development Consulting
Chairman Of H & D International Association Founded in 1997
Socio-Economic Cooperation

Dr Shahida Mariyam M.
Social Justice Advocate
VP-National Federation of Maldivian Employers,
VP-Geneve Nations Institute.
Founder-Geneva Debate,
Direct Democracy Global,
Dhivehi Gaume Vindhu.

Mrs Yvonne Apiyo Brändle-Amolo
Swiss Parliamentarian
Chair European Minority Parliamentarian Caucus and Pan African Women's Association

Dr. DIANKO Lamine
International Relation Constant
Chairman and CEO
ACI HUMAN RIGHTS
in Special Consultative Status with the United Nations
Economic and social Council
(ECOSOC) European Muslim
League Peace Ambassador

Munawar Sufii LAGHARI
Executive Director of Sindhi
Foundation based in Washington DC. Mr. Laghari has testified before the Congressional Human Rights Caucus on the International Day in Support of Torture Victims (1999).

Dr. Arch. TARANTINI Roberto
Director Africa Carbon Free
Initiative Innovation technology for green economy to ensure practicable human rights for basic services
ACI HUMAN RIGHTS

Jacques Rivkine, Eng
Chairman Research &
Development Technologies -
Mechanics - Bio Hygiene
Expert Consultant in simplicity
Geneva University Hospitals
Innovation Prize 2014

