

THE CONFERENCE ON DISARMAMENT AT 40

PERSPECTIVES AND PROSPECTS

27 FEBRUARY 2019
13:15 | ROOM VIII
PALAIS DES NATIONS

Refreshments will be served

This discussion will convene disarmament practitioners and experts to discuss the body's evolution over the past four decades, the variety of mechanisms employed to produce results, and explore the prospects for future progress.

The panel will be moderated by Aidan Liddle, UK Ambassador and Permanent Representative to the Conference on Disarmament in Geneva, and feature:

- Dr. Ignacio Cartagena — Spanish Ministry of Foreign Affairs
- Dr. Patricia Lewis — Chatham House
- Robert Einhorn — The Brookings Institution

HOSTED BY

UNIDIR
UNITED NATIONS
INSTITUTE FOR DISARMAMENT
RESEARCH

UK Mission
Geneva

unidir@un.org
+41 22917 1141